Compassionate Gratuity Papers of Mr. T.S. Keshavamurti

General and Revenue Secretariat | File No. 44 of 193 0.

Serial No.
3	From The C.C.T. Letter No. E.405-1517-32 dated the 8th June 1933 forwarding the ~~Compassionate~~ petition of Sowamma — for the Grant of Compassionate Gratuity, Counting the Temporary and Acting Service of her ~~husband~~ late Mr T.S. Keshavamurti.

Subd: for orders —

Govt have already stated in their letter of the 14th Aug 1930 (Leg. D. thereon) it is not possible to Count the temporary and acting Service of Mr T. Keshavamurti as qualifying for Compassionate Gratuity.

Mg 15/6/33

But the Ch. Secy requests a Sympathetic view to be taken on behalf of the destitute & helpless widow & allow the gratuity by counting the Temp'y & acting Service of the deceased Rajah.

If necessary may be Consulted.

From the Chief Conservator's Communication dt 17.5.1930, it is seen that the deceased held, to begin with, a S.P.T. appointment which soon after he lost, but was taken again as Aq. Forester and was confirmed only with effect from 11.11.29. He died on 13.5.1929. His Ranger has put in a total service of 6 yrs 18 days out of which 4 yrs 6 mths 15 days represent temporary or acting Service, and the remaining 1 yr 6 mths 3 days represent permanent Service. As the qualifying Service is less than 5 years, the family of the deceased cannot claim any Comp. gratuity.

The recommendation is that temporary and acting Service may be counted in this case, as qualifying for Comp. gratuity.

In the C.g. case of the late Mr. P. Subbanna Sinhiah, Lecturer in Mathematics, Maharaja's College, who had put in a temporary Service of 4 yrs & 22 days, it was agreed that the proposal to grant him comp. gratuity ~~to~~ was not admissible under the Rules

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

The circumstances of the family & the cause of death have not been mentioned.

IW 8/9

As regards the cause of death it is stated to be malaria contracted in the course of duty, in the petition of the widow. It is stated therein that the deceased had the disease even in Bhadravati and prayed for a transfer to the Malnad in order to get himself cured of it. But he was posted to Heggadadevanakote instead and it is here that he is stated to have died.

As for the circumstances of the family of the deceased after his death, the Conservator states that it is understood that the widow is "Quite destitute".

If any relief is to be afforded, it is only as a Special case.

H Seey) 8.7.33.

The case is undoubtedly hard & the C.S. rules do not expressly provide for such a.g. & temporary men being invited.

In case the temporary and ag service stands at 4 yrs. 6 mnth & permanent service 1 year 6 mnth. Even if half the temporary service is allowed to count as in the case of Bhadrayya Iyengar (Flag U) the total service comes less than five years for which no gratuity is payable as per C.S. rules. In view of the very hard case and the destitute condition of the widow

Serial No.

I would suggest a special lump sum Compassionate Gratuity of Rupees one hundred (Rs 55/- (temporary) last pay). May be sanctioned as outside the rules and as a matter of grace

Sir,

Adverting to the General Secretary's letter No.G.1990/Ft.44-30-2 dated 14th August 1930, stating that the proposal to count as a special case the temporary and acting service of deceased Ranger Mr. T.S.Kesava Murthi as service qualifying for Compassionate Gratuity cannot be accepted under the rules, I have the honour to forward herewith for the orders of Government, application dated 5th May 1933 from the Widow of the deceased Ranger, praying for reasons stated therein that her case for grant of Compassionate Gratuity may be considered favourably and to state that this is a very hard case in view of the facts already reported to Government in my letters No.E.43-194-29 dated 17th May and 19th July 1930 and those urged by the widow of the deceased Ranger in her present application. A sympathetic treatment of the case is called for, though it may amount to a slight relaxation of the rule on the point. A strict enforcement of the rule in the present case will work as a great hardship on the poor widow who is stated to be quite destitute and helpless, and the benefits of the Scheme of grant of Compassionate Gratuity will not have reached her though she is most in need of same, unless her case is viewed favourably by Government. In the circumstances, I beg to recommend strongly that my original recommendation to permit the deceased Ranger's temporary and acting service to be counted as qualifying service for grant of Compassionate Gratuity in the case, may be kindly
